10. [REDACTED] Received a call from Norm Cornish, Deputy Staff Director, Subcommittee on Foreign Operations and Government Information, House Committee on Foreign Operations, who raised questions concerning certain American citizens. I told him that this class of information was available only through the FBI, but any information coming to our attention overseas would be relayed to the Bureau.

I also discussed with him briefly in passing Chairman William S. Moorhead's (D., Pa.) letter of 8 May concerning H.R. 12004. Cornish told me that there are a large number of government agencies that are delinquent in responding on this bill and that the Committee staff had just learned the bottleneck apparently is at OMB.
